COCA-COLA DONATES TO CAPEABILITIES

capeAbilities has received a generous donation from Coca-Cola. The money was donated by the Coca-Cola Bottler's Association, which supports non-profit organizations throughout the United States.

The money will be used to continue expansion of capeAbilities programs, including capeAbilities Vending Services. According to Bob Mayo, Cold Drink Manager of Coca-Cola of Cape Cod, "capeAbilities provides important services for people with disabilities on Cape Cod. We are proud to support your programs and your work."

capeAbilities Vending Services is one of capeAbilities entrepreneurial businesses. It provides paid employment for people with disabilities on Cape Cod.

capeAbilities is a non-profit organization that provides jobs, homes and therapeutic services for Cape Codders with disabilities. Founded as Nauset Workshop in Orleans in 1968, capeAbilities now serves people with disabilities from Bourne to Provincetown. For more information visit www.capeabilities.org
