Cape Abilities Debbie Silva Honored By Morgan Memorial Goodwill

Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries recently honored Debbie Silva from Cape Abilities for 10 years of successful employment.

Silva, 54, is a West Yarmouth resident. She started her job at Goodwill in 1997, and has done everything from organizing shoes and straightening hangers to keeping the clothes racks and counters clean.

Cape Abilities Employment Services department helped Debbie find her job at Goodwill and has provided ongoing job coaching services for the past 10 years. Debbie is also employed at Cape Abilities workcenter in Hyannis.

Maureen Fitzgerald, Manager of Goodwill Hyannis said, “Debbie always comes to work with a smile on her face. She is very happy when she is here doing her job”. Fitzgerald continued, “Debbie is a good person and a good employee”.

Cape Abilities is a non-profit organization that provides jobs, homes and therapeutic services for people with disabilities on Cape Cod. Cape Abilities was founded as Nauset Workshop in Orleans in 1968. Cape Abilities now serves people with disabilities from Bourne to Provincetown.
