“Creative Partnerships Art Exhibit Opens June 10 at the JFK Museum in Hyannis”

capeAbilities, a non profit organization supporting Cape Codders with disabilities and the Creative Arts Center in Chatham are opening an art exhibition “CREATIVE PARTNERSHIPS” on June 10th.

This art exhibition is a collaborative venture spotlighting the work of artists with disabilities from capeAbilities and their mentors from the Creative Arts Center in Chatham.

The opening reception is Sunday, June 10 from 4-6 PM at:

John F. Kennedy Museum
397 Main Street
Hyannis, Massachusetts

The exhibition will continue through June 16th. The exhibition hours are 9-4 PM daily. For further information call 508-790-3077

The opening reception and exhibition are free and open to the public.

Funding for the partnership was provided by the Cape Cod Five Cent Savings Bank Charitable Foundation and the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod.

capeAbilities is a non-profit organization that provides jobs, housing and therapeutic services for Cape Codders with disabilities. Founded as Nauset Workshop in 1968 in Orleans, capeAbilities now serves people with disabilities from Bourne to Provincetown.
